

THOUGHTS ON STEWARDSHIP
“Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.” 1 CORINTHIANS 10:17
As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God’s kingdom here on earth. Two, it is a road map to Heaven. Let’s help each other get there!

“Lord Jesus, increase my hunger for you and show me the way that leads to everlasting happiness and peace. May I desire you above all else and find perfect joy in doing your will.”

Daily Quote from the Early Church Fathers: If someone has done you injury, by Augustine of Hippo (354-430 AD
"If someone has done you injury and you have suffered, what should be done? You have heard the answer already in today's scripture: 'If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone.' If you fail to do so, you are worse than he is. He has done someone harm, and by doing harm he has stricken himself with a grievous wound. Will you then completely disregard your brother's wound? Will you simply watch him stumble and fall down? Will you disregard his predicament? If so, you are worse in your silence than he in his abuse. Therefore, when any one sins against us, let us take great care, but not merely for ourselves. For it is a glorious thing to forget injuries. Just set aside your own injury, but do not neglect your brother's wound. Therefore 'go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone,' intent upon his amendment but sparing his sense of shame. For it might happen that through defensiveness he will begin to justify his sin, and so you will have inadvertently nudged him still closer toward the very behavior you desire to amend. Therefore 'tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother,' because he might have been lost, had you not spoken with him. " (excerpt from Sermon 82.7) — taken from dailyscripture.net

Vincentian Meditation:

People had often reproved Vincent for his harsh, almost driven streak, and commented about his steep mood swings. Defensive, Vincent would argue that he was the way he was and could not change. But during one intense period of prayer, Vincent threw himself on God’s mercy, recognizing at last that only God’s power could calm his harshness and ease his sharp mood swings. Many years later, Vincent recounted this crucial moment: “I turned to God and earnestly begged him to convert this irritable and forbidding trait of mine. I also asked for a kind and amiable spirit. And with the grace of Our Lord, by giving a little attention to checking the hot-blooded impulses of my personality, I have been at least partly cured of my gloomy disposition.” (McKenna, Praying with Vincent, p.68-69.)

Dear Parishioners / Estimados Feligreses,

I am sure you have noticed the modular building in back of the Parish Center that is in a state of disrepair. We have decided to remove the building and are looking at alternatives for storage to replace it. If anyone is interested in these buildings (there are two on separate metal frames with axels for transport) we would be pleased to extend a “special deal”. If you or anyone you know are interested please contact John Hasbrook, our Parish Finance Committee Chairperson, at (530) 304-7708.

Estoy seguro de que ha notado el edificio modular en la parte trasera del Centro Parroquial que se encuentra en mal estado. Hemos decidido dismantelar el edificio y estamos buscando alternativas de almacenamiento para reemplazarlo. Si alguien está interesado en estos edificios (hay dos en estructuras de metal separadas con ejes para el transporte) estaremos encantados de extender una "oferta especial". Si usted o alguien que conoce está interesado, comuníquese con John Hasbrook, nuestro presidente del Comité de Finanzas Parroquial, al (530) 304-7708.
