

THOUGHTS ON STEWARDSHIP
“Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.” 1 CORINTHIANS 10:17
As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God’s kingdom here on earth. Two, it is a road map to Heaven. Let’s help each other get there!

“Lord Jesus, increase my hunger for you and show me the way that leads to everlasting happiness and peace. May I desire you above all else and find perfect joy in doing your will.”

Daily Quote from the Early Church Fathers: How often shall I forgive? by Hilary of Poitiers (315-367 AD)

"When Peter asked him whether he should forgive his brother sinning against him up to seven times, the Lord replied, 'Not up to seven times but up to seventy times seven times'" In every way he teaches us to be like him in humility and goodness. In weakening and breaking the impulses of our rampant passions he strengthens us by the example of his leniency, by granting us in faith pardon of all our sins. For the vices of our nature did not merit pardon. Therefore all pardon comes from him. In fact, he pardons even those sins that remain in one after confession. The penalty to be paid through Cain was established at sevenfold, but that sin was against a man, against his brother Abel, to the point of murder (Genesis 4:8). But in Lamech the penalty was established at seventy times seven times (Genesis 4:24), and, as we believe, the penalty was established on those responsible for the Lord's Passion. But the Lord through the confession of believers grants pardon for this crime. By the gift of baptism he grants the grace of salvation to his revilers and persecutors. How much more is it necessary, he shows, that pardon be returned by us without measure or number. And we should not think how many times we forgive, but we should cease to be angry with those who sin against us, as often as the occasion for anger exists. Pardon's frequency shows us that in our case there is never a time for anger, since God pardons us for all sins in their entirety by his gift rather than by our merit. Nor should we be excused from the requirement of giving pardon that number of times [i.e., seventy times seven], since through the grace of the gospel God has granted us pardon without measure." (excerpt from ON MATTHEW 18.10) — taken from dailyscripture.net

Vincentian Meditation:

“Because Jesus took our misery upon Himself, it is only reasonable that we should follow and imitate His holy, human life....Filled with consolation and happiness at the thought of being accepted by Him to live my entire life as His follower, I resolved that in everything, particularly in uncertain or questionable circumstances, I would consider what Jesus would have done...All the actions and the entire life of the Son of God are only for our example and instruction...”- St. Louise de Marillac (Gibson and Kneaves, Praying with Louise, p. 55) Vincentian Reflections

Prayer for the Children and Parents as they start a new catechetical year.

Loving God, Creator of this beautiful day,

We thank you for today

as we celebrate another new beginning in the lives of our children and we ask your blessing upon them.

Lord, bless these catechists.

Give them your gifts of patience and wisdom

as they guide these children entrusted to their care.

Lord, these parents.

Give them your gifts of wonder and awe

so that the mysteries of our faith

will continue to be revealed to them through the simplicity of their children.

Lord, bless these children.

Give them the gift of your grace

as all of us gathered here

work together to help them

come to know you

and the incredible love you have for each one of them.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE CATECHISTS

With your fatherly blessing, Lord, strengthen these servants of yours in their resolve to dedicate themselves as catechists. Grant that they will strive to share with others what they themselves derive from pondering your Word and studying the Church’s teaching.

And let them gladly join those they teach in honoring and serving your name.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
