

THOUGHTS ON STEWARDSHIP
"Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread." 1 CORINTHIANS 10:17
 As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God's kingdom here on earth. Two, it is a road map to Heaven. Let's help each other get there!

No flowers during Lent
No Flores durante Cuaresma

The season of Lent will be starting with Ash Wednesday on February 18. This season invites us all to attend to our relationship with God. Fasting and abstaining, giving alms and praying are highly encouraged at this season. We are also encouraged to repent and believe in the gospel, the words that ministers say when imposing ashes on our foreheads on Ash Wednesday.

In spirit of the season, please do not bring flowers to our Church. Preferably, through our prayers and assistance to the poor, we will be seeking the intercessions of the saints for our spiritual growth and maturity.

El tiempo de Cuaresma comenzará con el Miércoles de Ceniza, el 18 de febrero. Este tiempo nos invita a todos a cuidar nuestra relación con Dios. Se recomienda encarecidamente ayunar, abstenerse, dar limosna y orar en este tiempo. También se nos anima a arrepentirnos y creer en el Evangelio, las palabras que los ministros dicen al imponernos la ceniza en la frente el Miércoles de Ceniza. En el espíritu de la temporada, por favor no traigan flores a nuestra Iglesia. Preferiblemente, a través de nuestras oraciones y asistencia a los pobres, buscaremos la intercesión de los santos para nuestro crecimiento y madurez espiritual.

“Lord Jesus, increase my hunger for you and show me the way that leads to everlasting happiness and peace. May I desire you above all else and find perfect joy in doing your will.”

Daily Quote from the Early Church Fathers: What you teach, you should do, by Chromatius (died 406 AD)

"While it is sinful to abolish the least of the commandments, all the more so the great and most important ones. Hence the Holy Spirit affirms through Solomon: 'Whoever despises the little things shall gradually die' (Sirach 19:1b). Consequently nothing in the divine commandments must be abolished, nothing altered. Everything must be preserved and taught faithfully and devotedly that the glory of the heavenly kingdom may not be lost. Indeed, those things considered least important and small by the unfaithful or by worldly people are not small before God but necessary. For the Lord taught the commandments and did them. Even small things point to the great future of the kingdom of heaven. For this reason, not only words but also deeds are important; and you should not only teach, but what you teach, you should do." (excerpt from TRACTATE ON MATTHEW 20.2.1-3) daily scripture.net

Vincentian Meditation:

Every Christian at every moment is called to holiness. Make no mistake about it. You are proclaiming a message at every moment of the day, even when you are not speaking. Your message must be authentic. It will be so, if you are authentic. Your authenticity as a Christian comes from your personal relationship with Jesus Christ, truly God and truly man. Often ask your self: “Could Jesus Christ share what I am going to say or what I am going to do?” If you can reply yes, then you are authentic. Holiness can be summed up in the words of Micah (Mi6:8): “God has shown you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”(McCullen, Deep Down Things, p.555) Vincentian Reflections
