

THOUGHTS ON STEWARDSHIP

“Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.” 1 CORINTHIANS 10:17
 As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God’s kingdom here on earth. Two, it is a road map to Heaven. Let’s help each other get there!

“Lord Jesus, increase my hunger for you and show me the way that leads to everlasting happiness and peace. May I desire you above all else and find perfect joy in doing your will.”

Daily Quote from the Early Church Fathers: Could anyone refuse to love our God?, by Augustine, Bishop of Hippo, 354-430 A.D.

"These words having been read to the assembled people, all eyes focused on Jesus, wondering perhaps how he could read without having been taught. The Israelites used to say that the prophecies concerning Christ were fulfilled, either in the persons of some of their more glorious kings or at least in the holy prophets. They did not correctly understand what was written about him, so they missed the true direction and traveled down another path. He carefully guards against error by saying, 'This day is this prophecy fulfilled in your ears,' that they might not again misinterpret the present prophecy. He expressly set himself before them in these words, as the person spoken of in the prophecy. It was he who preached the kingdom of heaven to the heathen. They were poor, having nothing - not God, not law, not prophets. Rather, he preached it to all who were without spiritual riches. He set the captives free; having overthrown the apostate tyrant Satan, he shed the divine and spiritual light on those whose heart was darkened. This is why he said, 'I come as a light in this world' (John 12:46).' It was he who took the chains of sin off of those whose heart was crushed by them. He clearly showed that there is a life to come, and sinners denounced in just judgment. Finally, it was he who preached the acceptable year of the Lord, the year in which the Savior's proclamation was made. By the acceptable year I think is meant his first coming, and by the day of restitution the day of judgment. (excerpt from COMMENTARY ON LUKE, HOMILY 12) taken from dailyscripture.net

Vincentian Meditation:

In light of Vincent’s regular practice of taking the imitation of Jesus Christ as the model of behavior, the saint, in Jesus’ manner, chose the words of this Gospel: “He has sent me to bring good news to the poor,” as the motto of his life and ministry. Jesus modeled doing before teaching. Accordingly, Vincent noted that Jesus first integrated “fully into his life every type of virtue.” That was his preparation, after which our Lord, then went on to teach, by preaching the good news of salvation to poor people, and by passing on to his apostles and disciples what they needed to know to become guides for others. As followers of Vincent, we must imitate Christ the Lord, first...imitate his virtues and then we can go out in service to the poor. (Melito, St. Vincent -Windows on His Vision, p. 45) Vincentian Reflections

Chesteron Academy at Valley of the Sacred Heart

Do you know where you are sending your child to high school? It is one of the most important decisions you will ever make, even more important than where you send them to college. GK Chesterton said, “the one thing that is not taught in most of our schools today is that there is a whole truth of things and that in knowing it and speaking it, we are happy.” At Chesterton Academy we teach the whole truth of things. We develop our students into complete thinkers. Our unique, classical, integrated curriculum ties together the arts, the sciences, philosophy, math, logic, great literature, faith, and reason. Combine that with daily Mass and a low tuition. If you are interested in learning more about Chesteron Academy at Valley of the Sacred Heart, call 530-574-0804, visit www.valleyofthesacredheart.com

¿Sabe a dónde va a mandar a su hijo a la preparatoria? Esta es una de las decisiones más importantes que tomará en su vida. El escritor Católico Inglés del siglo 20, Gilberto K Chesterton dijo, "la única cosa que nos enseña en nuestras escuelas hoy en día es que hay una verdad completa de las cosas y que en sabiendola y hablando somos felices." Esa verdad es Jesús. En la Academia Chesterton enseñamos toda la verdad de nuestra Fe Católica. Ayudamos a nuestros estudiantes a desarrollarse como pensadores completos. Nuestro plan de estudio único, es clásico e integra las artes, las ciencias, la filosofía, las matemáticas, la lógica, la literatura, la fe y la razón. En nuestra preparatoria se combina todo esto con la misa diaria y una matrícula baja. Si está interesado en aprender más sobre la Academia Chesterton en el Valle del Sagrado Corazón en Dixon, llame al (530) 574-0804 o visite www.valleyofthesacredheart.com
