

THOUGHTS ON STEWARDSHIP

“Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.” 1 CORINTHIANS 10:17
 As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God’s kingdom here on earth. Two, it is a road map to Heaven. Let’s help each other get there!

“Lord Jesus, increase my hunger for you and show me the way that leads to everlasting happiness and peace. May I desire you above all else and find perfect joy in doing your will.”

Daily Quote from the Early Church Fathers: The Holy Spirit at Pentecost, by Leo the Great, 400-461 A.D. To the Hebrew people, now freed from Egypt, the law was given on Mount Sinai fifty days after the immolation of the paschal lamb. Similarly, after the passion of Christ in which the true Lamb of God was killed, just fifty days after his resurrection, the Holy Spirit fell upon the apostles and the whole group of believers. Thus the earnest Christian may easily perceive that the beginnings of the Old Covenant were at the service of the beginnings of the gospel and that the same Spirit who instituted the first established the Second Covenant." (excerpt from Sermon 75.1) taken from dailyscripture.net

Vincentian Meditation:

While at times one can hear the Spirit speak even in a noisy crowd, it is often only in silence that one hears the deepest voice, that one plumbs the depth of meaning. It is only when what is heard is pondered, that its full meaning is revealed. The quest for truth, therefore, involves prayerfulness and reflectiveness. Jesus turned to his Father again and again in prayer to listen to him and to seek his will. Prayer is then surely one of the privileged ways of listening. But it must always be validated by life. One who listens to “what the Spirit is telling me” in prayer, but who pays little heed to what others are saying in daily life is surely suspect. Prayer must be in contact with people and events, since God speaks not only in the silence of our hearts, but also (and often first of all) in the people around us. (Maloney, The Way of Vincent de Paul, p.24) Vincentian Reflections

In Gratitude to God / En Gratitud a Dios

We give thanks to God for His continued blessings to the families of these children who has receive their First Communion this weekend. Along with the many volunteer catechists and our community's love and prayers for them, the parents and their families have imparted their faith to these young men and women. Now, they have been found worthy of receiving our Lord Jesus Christ. May we continue to pray for these families and these children that they may treasure the tremendous gift of being able to partake of the Body and Blood of our Lord. May they be nourished constantly, and be God's instruments...

Damos gracias a Dios por sus continuas bendiciones a las familias de estos niños que recibieron su primera comunión en fin de semana. Junto con las numerosas catequistas voluntarios y el amor y las oraciones de nuestra comunidad por ellos, los padres y sus familias han impartido su fe a estos jóvenes. Ahora, se han encontrado dignos de recibir a nuestro Señor Jesucristo. Que continuemos orando por estas familias y estos niños para que puedan atesorar el tremendo don de poder participar del Cuerpo y la Sangre de nuestro Señor. Que sean nutridos constantemente, y sean los instrumentos de Dios ...
