

THOUGHTS ON STEWARDSHIP

“Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.” 1 CORINTHIANS 10:17
 As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God’s kingdom here on earth. Two, it is a road map to Heaven. Let’s help each other get there!

“Lord Jesus, increase my hunger for you and show me the way that leads to everlasting happiness and peace. May I desire you above all else and find perfect joy in doing your will.”

Daily Quote from the Early Church Fathers: The Lord of the Sabbath, by John Chrysostom, 547-407 A.D.

Doubtless he speaks of himself when he mentions the 'Lord of the sabbath' (Mark 2:28, Matthew 12:8, Luke 6:5). Mark relates a complementary saying about our common human nature, that "the sabbath was made for humans, not humans for the sabbath" (Mark 2:27). Why then should someone who gathered sticks on the sabbath be censured? The law that was established earlier could not be scorned without jeopardizing the law to be given later.

"The sabbath did confer many benefits, great blessings in the earlier dispensation. It made people more gentle toward those close to them. It guided them toward being more sympathetic. It located them temporally within God's creation and providence, as Ezekiel knew (Ezekiel 20:19-20). The sabbath trained Israel by degrees to abstain from evil and disposed them to listen to the things of the Spirit.

"They would have stretched the law out of shape if, when he was giving the law of the sabbath, Jesus had said, 'You can work on the sabbath, but just do good works, do nothing evil.' This would have brought out the worst in them. So he restrained them from doing any works at all on the sabbath. And even this stricter prohibition did not keep them in line. But he himself, in the very act of giving the law of the sabbath, gave them a veiled sign of things to come. For by saying, 'You must do no work, except what shall be done for your life' (Exodus 12:16), he indicated that the intent of the law was to have them refrain from evil works only, not all works. Even in the temple, much went on during the sabbath, and with great diligence and double toil. Thus even by this very shadowy saying Jesus was secretly opening the truth to them. Did Christ then attempt to repeal a law so beneficial as the sabbath law? Far from it. Rather, he greatly magnified the sabbath. For with Christ came the time for everyone to be trained by a higher requirement."(excerpt from THE GOSPEL OF MATTHEW, HOMILY 39.3) taken from dailyscripture.net

Vincentian Meditation:

The Manual of the Society states: The Eucharist plays a major role in Vincentian spirituality. This is seen in the lives of St. Vincent and Blessed Frederic. Vincent spent one hour each morning before the Blessed Sacrament before celebrating Mass. He would frequently make short visits to the chapel before leaving and upon returning from his responsibilities. Frederic attended Mass daily whenever possible. And a day did not go by, when Frederic would make a short visit to the Blessed Sacrament in one of the churches in Paris as he made his way to an appointment. Both Vincent and Frederic discovered what the Church teaches today: the Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life; it augmented their union with Jesus, strengthened their charity and committed them to the poor. Blessing of Graduates

Before you were even formed, God knew you. While in your Mother's womb, God named you. At your birth, God's breath filled you with life.

Today we celebrate what you have become at this moment in time.

And so we pray,

God of our beginnings,

We thank you for the gifts of these graduates; their excitement, their awesome wonder and curiosity, their open speech and encouraging words.

Their contributions have blessed and challenged us, and we have become a richer and more diverse community because of them.

As they step forward into the world that awaits, comfort their fears with the full knowledge of your divine presence.

Strengthen their resolve to walk in the footsteps of Jesus as modern-day disciples in a world that needs their spirit.

Guide their feet as they move through life, protecting them from the pitfalls of darkness while they help to lead future generations into the warmth and promise of your light.

We ask this blessing upon each of them,

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Bendición de Graduados

Antes de que te formaras, Dios te conocía.

Mientras estabas en el vientre de tu madre, Dios te nombró.

Al nacer, el aliento de Dios te llenó de vida.

Hoy celebramos en lo que te has convertido en este momento.

Por eso oramos,

Dios de nuestros comienzos, te damos gracias por los dones de estos graduados; su entusiasmo, su asombroso asombro y curiosidad, su discurso abierto y palabras de aliento.

Sus contribuciones nos han bendecido y desafiado, y nos hemos convertido en una comunidad más rica y diversa gracias a ellos.

Mientras avanzan hacia el mundo que los espera, consuela sus miedos con el pleno conocimiento de tu presencia divina.

Fortalece su determinación de caminar en los pasos de Jesús como discípulos modernos en un mundo que necesita su espíritu.

Guía sus pasos mientras avanzan por la vida, protegiéndolos de las trampas de la oscuridad mientras ayudan a conducir a las generaciones futuras hacia la calidez y la promesa de tu luz.

Pedimos esta bendición para cada uno de ellos, en el nombre del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo. Amén.

Vacation Bible School

We are excited to announce that we will be hosting a Vacation Bible School July 15th – July 19th. This program will need volunteers to be successful! We will need a lot of help with a variety of tasks. If you are off for the summer from work or college, please consider volunteering. If you are at stay-at-home mom, please consider signing up to help. This is also an excellent opportunity for Confirmation students to earn service hours. The program is half day for children 6-10 years old. If you are able to share your time and talent with the parish for this week in July, please contact Dawn in the Parish Office. She can't wait to hear from you!

Registration information for the children will be announced soon!

La Escuela Bíblica durante las Vacaciones

Nos complace anunciar que organizaremos una Escuela Bíblica durante las Vacaciones del 15 al 19 de julio. Este programa se ofrecerá en inglés. ¡Este programa necesitará voluntarios para tener éxito! Necesitaremos mucha ayuda con una variedad de tareas. Si está libre durante el verano del trabajo o la universidad, considere registrarse para ayudar. Esta también es una excelente oportunidad para que los estudiantes de Confirmación obtengan horas de servicio. El programa es de medio día para niños de 6 a 10 años. Si puede compartir su tiempo y talento con la parroquia durante esta semana de julio, comuníquese con Dawn en la Oficina Parroquial. ¡Ella espera escuchar de ustedes!

¡La información de inscripción para los niños se anunciará pronto!
